Abstract

Students need to know grammar structures in order to communicate well.

This is a basic tense.

Keywords: Past Simple, past actions, -ed,-ied,-d, regular verbs, irregular verbs
Simple Past

We use the Simple Past when we talk about something which started and finished in the past.

We use the Simple Past to describe a series of actions in the past.
We use the Simple Past (red) together with the Past Progressive (grey). The action in the Simple Past interrupted the action in the Past Progressive (the one which was in progress).
Form of the Simple Past

- Form the Simple Past:
  - with regular verbs: infinitive + -ed
  - with irregular verbs: 2nd column of the table of the irregular verbs

Affirmative sentences:
Use the same form of the verb every time regardless the subject.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>regular verbs</th>
<th>irregular verbs</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I played football.</td>
<td>I went to the supermarket.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Negative sentences:

Use the auxiliary did (Simple Past of do) every time regardless the subject.

NOTE: Short forms in negative sentences in the Simple Past are used quite often.

<th>irregular verbs</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I didn't play football.</td>
<td>I didn't go to the supermarket.</td>

Simple Past – Spelling

You have to know all forms of the irregular verbs very well. For the Simple Past you need the form of the verb which can be found in the 2nd column of the table of the irregular verbs.

- go - went - gone
  Add -ed with regular verbs.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>regular verbs</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>infinitive + -ed</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Sometimes there are exceptions in spelling when adding -ed.

• 1) consonant after short, stressed vowel at the end of the word

Double the consonant.
stop – stopped
swap – swapped

If the consonant is not stressed, we do not double it:
benefit - benefited (Here we stress the first 'e', not the 'i'.) In British English we double one -l at the end of the word:
travel – travelled

• 2) one -e at the end of the word

love – loved save – saved
3) verbs ending in -y
verbs ending in 'y' preceded by a vowel (a, e, i, o, u): Add -ed.

Example:

I play - he played verbs ending in 'y' preceded by a consonant: Change 'y' to 'i'

Then add -ed.

Example:

I hurry - he hurried Use

1) action finished in the past
   I visited Berlin last week.

2) series of completed actions in the past
   First I got up, then I had breakfast.

3) together with the Past Progressive/Continuous - The Simple Past interrupted an action which was in progress in the past.
   They were playing cards when the telephone rang.
