- Tema:

- Introducción:

Sometimes, two actions happened at the same time, or maybe something which started in the past might continue in the present. In this cases we use the Past Continuous.

- Desarrollo del tema:

USE:

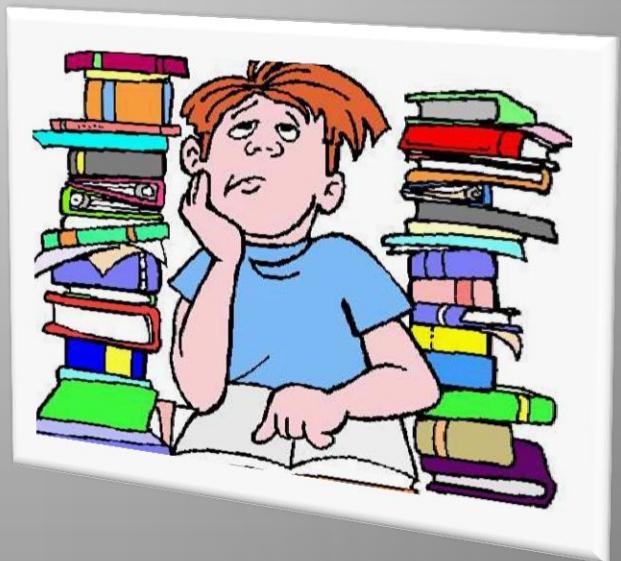

- We use the Past Continuous to talk about an action that was in progress when another action happened.

I was travelling back from China and we met on the plane

- We can also use the Past Continuous to talk about 2 actions which were happening at the same time.

While they were playing,
I was doing my homework

- We can use the Past Continuous to talk about an activity in progress at a point of time in the past. (But we do not know when the action started or finished, the time is unstated).

I was watching TV at 9 o'clock.

(But we do not know when I started to watch television, we only know that, by that time I was watching it.)

Tips!

- The action in progress is the longer action and the action which interrupts that action is the shorter action.
- The longer action goes in Past Continuous and the shorter one, goes in Past Simple.
- When two actions happened at the same time, both sentences go in Past Continuous.
